DECISION

In PERB Decision No 270-H, issued on December 28, 1982, the Public Employment Relations Board (PERB or Board) created two separate bargaining units for non-academic senate professional employees of the University of California. These are the non-academic senate instructional unit (instructional unit) and the research and allied professionals unit.

*Chairperson Gluck did not participate in this Decision.

Paragraph 3 of the Order in PERB Decision No. 270-H directed that in each of the units found appropriate managerial, supervisory, confidential and casual employees shall be excluded.¹ Thereafter, the parties stipulated ¹The Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act (HEERA) is codified at Government Code section 3560 et seq. All statutory references are to the Government Code unless otherwise specified.

Subsection 3562(1) of HEERA provides:

"Managerial employee" means any employee having significant responsibilities for formulating or administering policies and programs. No employee or group of employees shall be deemed to be managerial employees solely because the employee or group of employees participate in decisions with respect to courses, curriculum, personnel and other matters of educational policy. A department chair or head of a similar academic unit or program who performs the foregoing duties primarily on behalf of the members of the academic unit or program shall not be deemed a managerial employee solely because of such duties.

Section 3580.3 of the HEERA provides:

"Supervisory employee" means any individual, regardless of the job description or title, having authority, in the interest of the employer to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or responsibility to direct them, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend such action, if, in connection with the foregoing, the exercise of such authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature, but requires the use of independent judgment. With respect to faculty or academic employees, any department chair, head of a similar academic unit or program, or in the instructional unit to the exclusion, as supervisory, of the employees listed in Appendix A attached hereto. The Board has held that it will approve a stipulation in a unit determination matter when the stipulation does not contravene the Act or established Board policies. Centinela Valley Union High School District (8/7/78) PERB Decision No. 62. A review of the record in this proceeding reveals that it is adequate to support the stipulation. Therefore, the stipulation submitted other employee who performs the foregoing duties primarily in the interest of and on behalf of the members of the academic department, unit or program, shall not be deemed a supervisory employee solely because of such duties; provided, that with respect to the University of California and Hastings College of the Law, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that such an individual appointed by the employer to an indefinite term shall be deemed to be a supervisor. Employees whose duties are substantially similar to those of their subordinates shall not be considered to be supervisory employees.

Subsection 3562(e) of HEERA provides:

"Confidential employee" means any employee who is required to develop or present management positions with respect to meeting and conferring or whose duties normally require access to confidential information which contributes significantly to the development of such management positions.

Managerial and confidential employees are excluded from coverage under HEERA in subsection 3562(f). Supervisory employees have limited rights as set forth in section 3580 et seq.

by the parties regarding the exclusion of employees listed in Appendix A is hereby approved by the Board.²

The parties also submitted a stipulation stating that employees listed in Appendix B attached hereto shall vote challenged ballots in any representation election in the instructional unit if the parties are unable to agree whether they should be included in or excluded from the unit. The status of employees designated to vote challenged ballots will be determined at a later date in accordance with the provisions of the parties' stipulation and PERB's regulations and procedures. This stipulation is also approved.

²The Board does not specifically designate these classifications and employees as managerial, supervisory or confidential. In the State Employer-Employee Relations Act, Phase III, Unit Determination Proceeding (10/18/79) PERB Order No. Ad-79-S, the Board stated that it:

. . . views the focus of the Phase III unit determination proceedings to be a determination of those rank and file employees who are to be included in the designated appropriate units. However, the burden is on the . . . party which may seek to exclude employees from units because of alleged managerial, supervisory or confidential status—to affirmatively justify their exclusion. This can be done by showing evidence of actual job requirements which would disqualify the subject employees from placement in representation units irrespective of which exclusionary category those employees may fit.

Thus, the Board only approves the exclusion of the classifications and employees from the unit and not the specific bases for the exclusions.

ORDER

Upon the foregoing Decision and the entire record in this case, the Public Employment Relations Board ORDERS that:

(1) The employees listed in Appendix A are excluded from the Non-Academic Senate Instructional Unit according to the agreement of the parties and based upon the factual record in this proceeding.

(2) The employees listed in Appendix B attached hereto shall vote challenged ballots in any representation election if the parties are unable to agree whether they should be included in or excluded from the unit.

(3) Any technical errors in this Order shall be presented to the director of representation who shall take appropriate action thereon in accordance with this Decision.
